

The restrictions on broadcast ownership should not be changed. The public needs to hear more than one viewpoint and allowing one or two companies/conglomerates to own our airwaves is akin to having a state-run media that are found in countries under dictatorships.